STRATFORD-UPON-AVON

A contemporary collection of individually designed residences within walking distance of the centre of Stratford-upon-Avon. These distinctive homes offer visually striking exteriors and sophisticated interiors adorned with premium brands, materials and finishes.

DESIGN BY DEFINITION

CONSILIO

This is Consilio; a portfolio of distinctive residences exclusive by design. Each home features striking architecture constructed from the finest materials, complemented by considered layouts and an interior specification enriched with an array of premium brands.

MODERN DESIGN

Consilio

/verb/Latin

Design; to create with purpose and intent.

DESIGN-LED

MY FAVOURITE ARCHITECT IS FRANK LLOYD WRIGHT. HE WAS VERY MUCH ABOUT WORKING WITH SPACE AND NATURAL LIGHT, WHILST MAKING THE MOST OF THE SURROUNDING ENVIRONMENT.

AARON TERRY
Roberts Limbrick Architects

We have applied these principles to the design of the homes at Consilio. Open-plan spaces with multiple glazed aspects bring natural light deep into the house. In some of the houses, vaulted ceilings to master bedrooms and landings exaggerate the feeling of space.

Large chimneys, with contemporary chimney caps create a striking exterior feature that is unusual for new builds in this part of the country.

How our customers are going to live also influences our designs. Glazed bi-fold and French doors bring the outside in during the warmer months: perfect for al fresco dining while being close to the kitchen. And, while the majority of the homes have open-plan living areas, we also recognise the requirement for separate living rooms, creating spaces where guests can be entertained away from the heat of the kitchen, where children can play, or a quiet place to retreat with a book.

QUALITY FINISHES

Every aspect of The Bespoke Collection by Spitfire Homes is meticulously chosen to deliver a Signature Specification of premium brands, materials and finishes, which can be found within each home at Consilio.

Individually designed kitchens are unique to Spitfire, with bespoke feature staircases and contemporary Villeroy & Boch sanitaryware further conveying a sense of quality.

BESPOKE HOMES

Whether we are creating a chic contemporary townhouse, a characterful country home or a classic mansion, each home in The Bespoke Collection shares the Spitfire Signature; the unique qualities and characteristics that ensure that elements of your home are truly distinctive.

We do this by the careful selection of the external finishes and internal specification, sometimes to provide an architectural contrast or statement, and sometimes to create a home that is sympathetic to its surroundings.

For those clients who purchase early on in the construction process, there is also the opportunity to personalise your property with a choice of specification finishes and premium upgrades – all of which help to make your home as individual as you are.

BRIGHT DAYS

AERIAL VIEW OF STRATFORD-UPON-AVON

SHOPS ON CHAPEL STREET

STRATFORD BUTTERFLY FARM

FARMERS MARKET, ROTHER STREET

Living at Consilio, you will never be short of inspiration for ways to spend your day.

Shopping in and around town covers all the bases from national brands to independent businesses. Street market fans have hundreds of stalls to browse, at Upmarket on the riverside, the twice a month farmers' market in Rother Street, as well as the craft, traditional and Christmas markets.

Anyone who loves antiques and vintage finds will be well rewarded by a short trip out of town, to emporia like Bonds in Dodwell, or The Barn in Long Marston.

Stratford-upon-Avon has delights and surprises for all ages. One example is The Stratford Butterfly Farm, recreating a tropical rainforest paradise where these fragile winged creatures can flourish – entrancing for adults and children alike.

This is a town of annual festivals, when people gather outdoors for celebrations of poetry, music, literature and food. All year round, there are parks and gardens to enjoy. The Recreation Ground hosts the Stratford Marathon and The Regatta; and you can take tranquil riverside walks in Avon Bank Gardens. Bancroft Gardens is a town centre oasis, next to the Royal Shakespeare Theatre, offering broad lawns, gardens, and Shakespearean statues, against the backdrop of the river.

Evenings come alive with an exciting range of restaurants, pubs, bars and live entertainment to choose from. Some can be found in the historic buildings that give Stratford-upon-Avon its unique charm, such as The Garrick Inn, a building that dates back to the 1400s.

The Vintner café-bar and The Townhouse gastropub both have premises hundreds of years old. The Cox's Yard, in a former timber yard on the river Avon, combines comfort food dining, a pantry and a pub with comprehensive drinks list. Over at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre, you can enjoy food, cocktails and river views in The Rooftop Restaurant.

The Opposition – known locally as 'The Oppo' – is a long-standing favourite, especially for its pre and post theatre suppers, while Salt is the first restaurant in town to earn a Michelin star. It is also a cookery school, where home chefs can learn a few secrets from the experts.

As you would expect, Stratford-upon-Avon is a town where the performing arts take centre stage. The Royal Shakespeare Theatre and The Swan are home to the RSC, producing mainly, but not exclusively, works from the Shakespeare canon. The Other Place is also part of the RSC complex and is where you can hear live jazz, spoken word and open mic performances, and experience drama from new writers. Stratford Play House also contributes to local cultural life with comedy, live music and talks.
